TERMS AND CONDITIONS GOVERNING THE AWARD OF MAYORAL MUNICIPALITY BURSARIES

A. BLOUBERG MUNICIPALITY BURSARIES

Blouberg Municipality bursaries cover registration fees, tuition fees, residence fees (institutional residence only), prescribed books, prescribed equipment, Examination Fees, meals ( three course meal per day) and any other prescribed study related material. Each bursary is awarded for one year initially and is renewable upon satisfactory academic progress. The maximum period for any one bursary awarded may not exceed the normal period of the course. The municipality reserves exclusive rights to discontinue bursary awards if in its opinion the performance of the student is unsatisfactory.

A Blouberg Municipality bursary holder may NOT possess another bursary funding for the same purpose the bursary has been awarded. Academic performance grants awarded by the student's institution will be regarded as an exception.

B. INDIGENT STATUS

Applicant should be from the indigent family with a monthly income of R0 - R1 500.00. Ward Councilor/Traditional Leader or Commissioner of Oath should confirm the indigent status of the applicant
