EXAMINATIONS GOOD LUCK MESSAGE

CLASS OF 2016

We take this crucial instance to pledge our well wishes as you walk through the last portion of 2016 and towards the finishing line. The time for harvesting the fruits of the seeds cultured in your previous classes has finally dawned. In so far as the 2016 has come and bidding goodbye to our previous New Year resolutions and targets, we hope that even those who did not have that good a start will spur up their ante, adjust or redirect their energies to make the most of their final marks. Again it is that essential time in the academic calendar that you need to put off your panic buttons, niceties and maintain your composure in order to score crucial final marks. It has been our wish and hope that you come out of the exams with your heads held high. We believe that the success of your schooling better compliment furtherance of our undertaking for sustainable economic growth in tourism, agriculture and mining.

We would like to emphasise that the onus of ascertaining success depends largely on what you put in at the deciding moment of your academic calendar. We urge you in this instance to put all that it takes to positively turn the tide. We encourage you to dig deep in the textbooks, insight and memories on the work done to come out triumphant. We once more reaffirm our confidence in the efforts discharged over the past months of schooling. We urge you to refrain from all sorts of misguided acts, felonies and troubles that may waste your not so adequate time. We will always maintain that hope favours the prepared.

We have entrusted all in the Godly blessings, your mental fortitude, parental and educators' guidance that you'll do all what it takes to make it at the end. The future, achievement of developmental goals and pride of Blouberg lies utterly in the willingness of the youth who are capable enough and well prepared to take the bull by its horns. We further hope that your academic success better enhance the desire to liberate our people from all forms of anguishes and bondage. We encourage you to look upon the shining examples that came before us as George Bernard Shaw once said, "That we are all in the gutter, but some of us are looking at the stars." We wish you'll be counted amongst those shining stars who'd come home dancing.

We again would like to extend our sincere gratitude and unreserved well wishes for you to journey well through the exams. Hoping that all education stakeholders have done their dues and what's left is for you to put the cherry on top. It is believed that your dedication, discipline and determination in the positive course will make us a winning nation in all sectors of life. As we are part in this defining, deciding and likely untying momentous, the Blouberg Municipality unequivocally wishes you well in advance as you will be engaged in respective career paths of choice in the upcoming academic year. It has always been our wish that the Almighty One convoys you as you tread through dark ways and troubles, until He delivers you to the wonderland of your dreams.
