PUBLIC NOTICE

The Blouberg Municipality warns members of the community and the general public to be alert of syndicate scamming unsuspecting services providers claiming to be Blouberg Municipality Supply Chain officials.

Apparently, the syndicate call the unsuspecting persons pretending to be government promising them supply jobs within the municipality. The scammers then request the unsuspecting person to deposit money into their account before they can be given the job. Once the money has been deposited, the scammers cut off communication.

The Municipality calls on the general public to be on the alert for these criminals.

We request that we be assisted to clarify this matter in so that our people are not misled.
