BLOUBERG LOCAL MUNICIPALITY MAYOR, CLLR MARIA THAMAGA COMMENDS KGOSHI KGABO MOLOTO III FOR MAKING EDUCATION FASHIONABLE

Blouberg Local Municipality Mayor, Cllr Maria Thamaga has commended Kgoshi Kgabo Moloto III for making education fashionable.

Mayor Thamaga was speaking during Lunch With His Majesty - NSC Matric Results 2021 ceremony aimed at rewarding excellence from the 2021 matric class and encourage the young ones to take education seriously.

Today, the Moletši Traditional Authority through Mmanare Foundation awarded top achievers from matric class of 2021 for making the community proud by producing the best results in their National Senior Certificate(NSC) programme.

The awards were concentrated on nine(9) education circuits under Moletši Traditional Authority, which included Bakone, Moletši, Bochum West, Bochum East, Bahlaloga and Pietersburg among others. Mayor congratulated the top achievers for their dedication and making Moletši proud and wish them success in their future endeavors.

"Our appreciation to the Matric Class of 2021 under Moletši Traditional Authority for making us proud. To Kgoshi Kgabo Moloto III and Mma Kgoshi Mmanare, thank you for this great initiative.

It has been a long journey, and I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you for making it thus far. Do not allow your situation and background to determine your future. Your background should not limit you.

There are no shortcuts to success, through education you can improve your lives and that of your family, go out there and make us proud".

One of the top achievers awarded today from Blouberg Local Municipality is Elizabeth Makgamatha from Masonya Secondary School at Cooperspark Village. Elizabeth Makgamatha, an aspirant medical doctor scooped position 2 under Bakone Circuit.

Top achievers were awarded laptops, tablets, cellphones, bags and money among other gifts.

The Moletji Top Learner of 2021 award went to Letago Mashao from JH Moloto Secondary School under Bahlaloga Circuit with an 88,4% mark. The top learner walked away with R10 000 cash prize, a laptop, tablet, an iPhone, microwave, bags and other gifts.and Culture.
